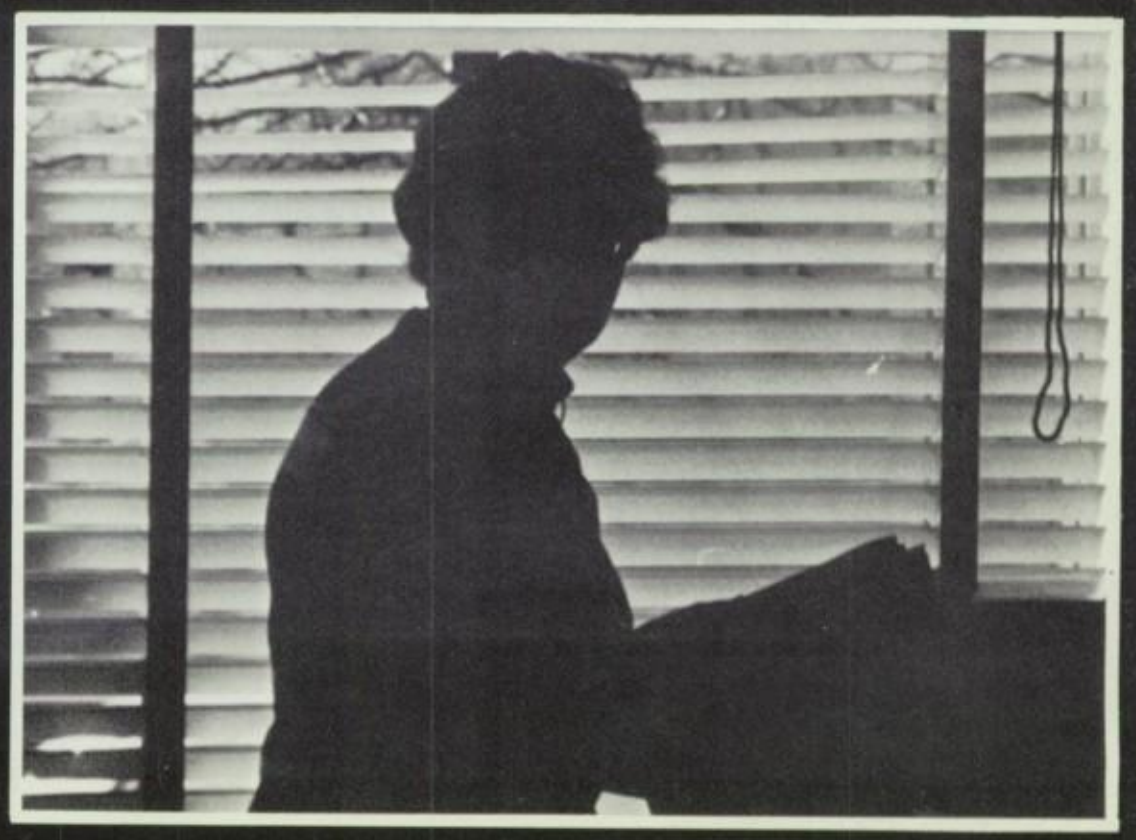
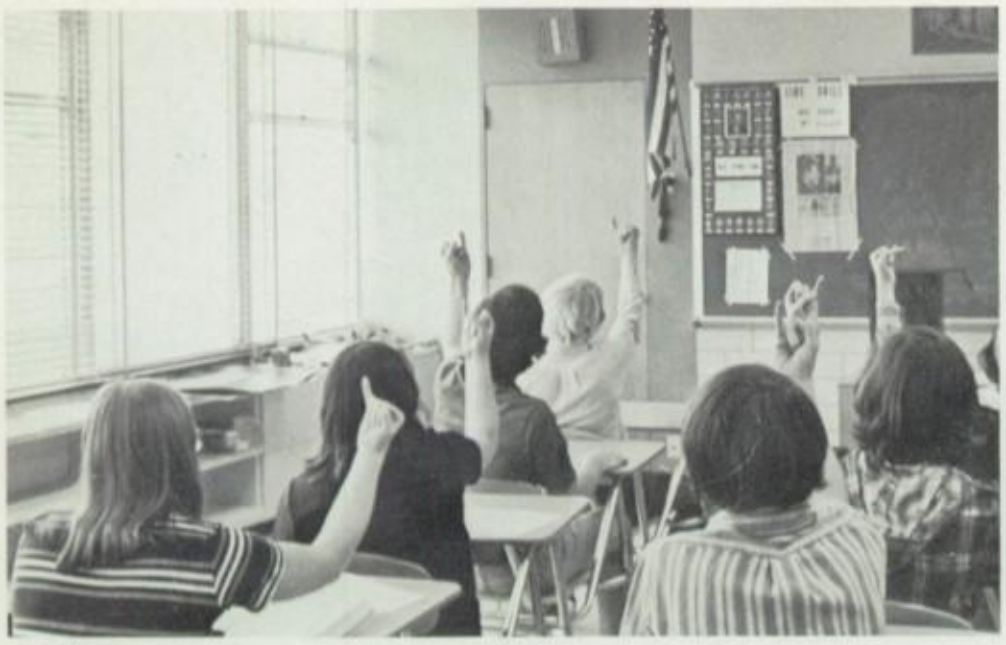
Dedication

Dedications are awkward things — it seems as though a book is always dedicated to a person who has either died or retired. And it is strange that people "behind the scenes" are rarely noticed and frequently taken for granted. This year we have changed these strange traditions and therefore dedicate our book to a person who has kept our high school going, and will continue to keep it going even after this dedication . . . Mrs. Adele Wojik.





MAY we HAVE your attention please!

LAST YEARS

Memories of Mercy

Giddap! The Past Is Calloping Back!

Freshman Year

What are you doing after the dance?

It's funny when you look back on your first year of high school — the memories are still rather frightening. Once again we found ourselves on the bottom. We traveled through corridors in groups of two or more for the first few weeks ... you never knew when one of those SENIORS would come along.

Raisin: A color, bluish red in hue, of low saturation and very low brilliance

Finally we were received by Ware High School on Sept. 26, 1971, and we were a part of this place. After that all we had to do was watch our steps and wait for year number two.

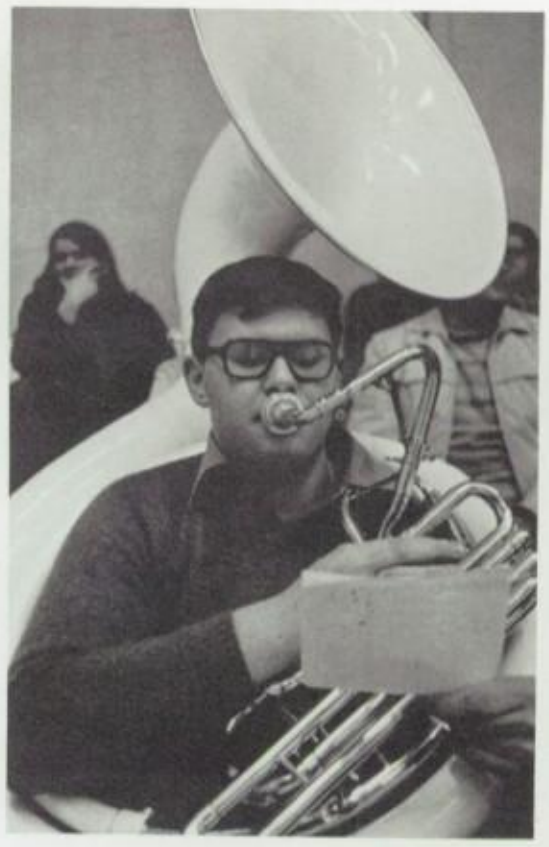
Gee, you have bony knuckles!

Who's got dishpan hands?

Who?

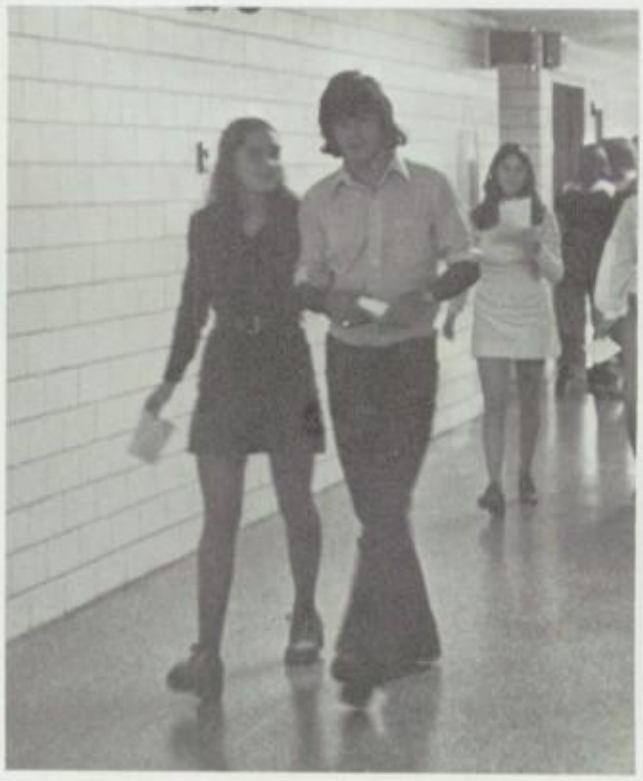
Sophomore Year

Well, we made it through the first part of the test and we were a little more sure of ourselves. Now we were to become a little more serious, or so the teachers seemed to think. Sophomore year is the year when you're right on the brink. There was nothing we could do but sit back and let the Juniors tell us what next year would be like ("Just wait till he makes you do those Presidents reports!) And that's just what we did.



I wish Stewart would teach me how to play this thing.

Just keep your distance, sweetheart.



But, what if your mother comes home?

Guess who's comin' to dinner . . .

Hey, hon, don't we have a few minutes before the job?

After two years of waiting we finally reached the upperclassmen level — and almost everything they told us was true (those Presidents reports really were "something else"). Everyone laughed and cried and worked together during this year. Even if we weren't on top, we were together and that's what was important to us.

One What?

I can jump higher than you can!

'75 gets off the ground.

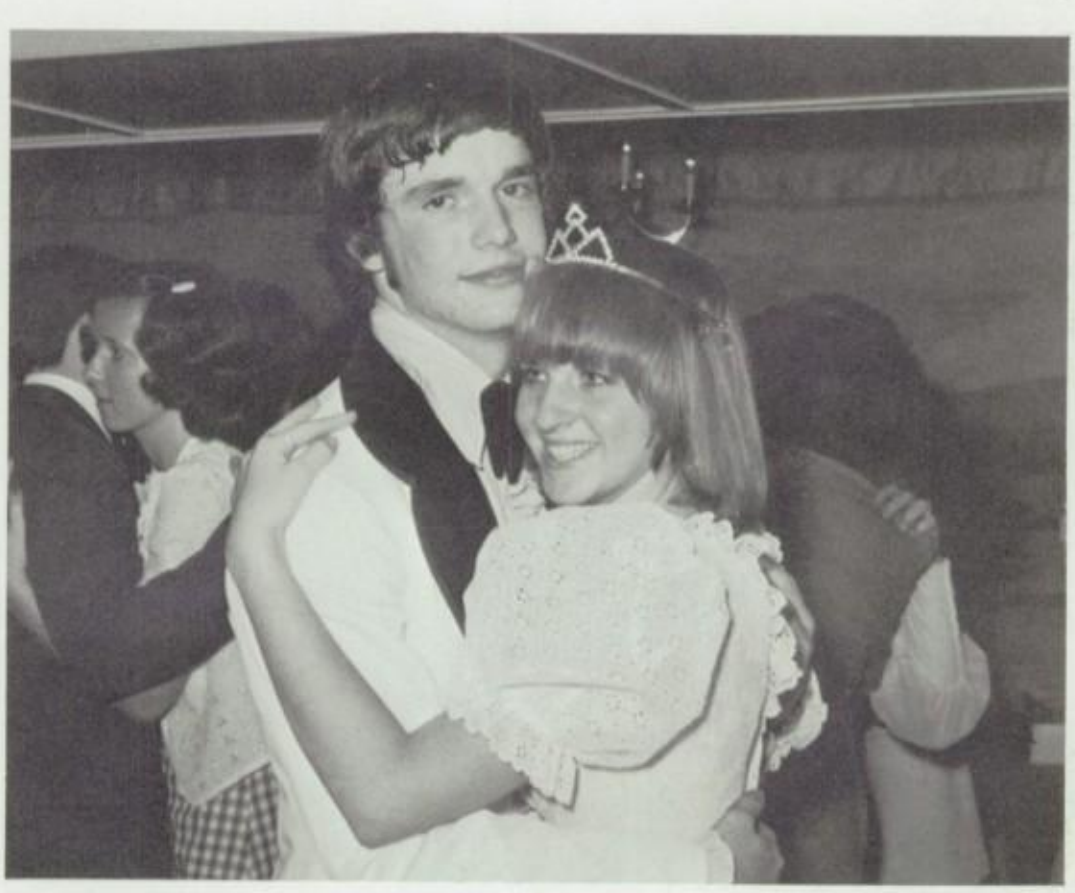
Winter Carnival Queen and Court. Junior representative Linda LaValley and escort.

Junior Prom

Your nose is cold!

Gee, Ed, you dance funny!

A prom is the one night in your high school career that you can play "dress-up" and get away with it. Our prom was held on the rainy night of May 25th, 1974 at the Willow Glen, in East Longmeadow, much to the amazement of the prom committee.



Get off my toe!!!

Your hair smells so nice!

Well . . . at least the punch is good.

And remember after the prom? All those people who came into one house soaking wet from another party. And how about that punch . . .!

Stanley, don't stare!

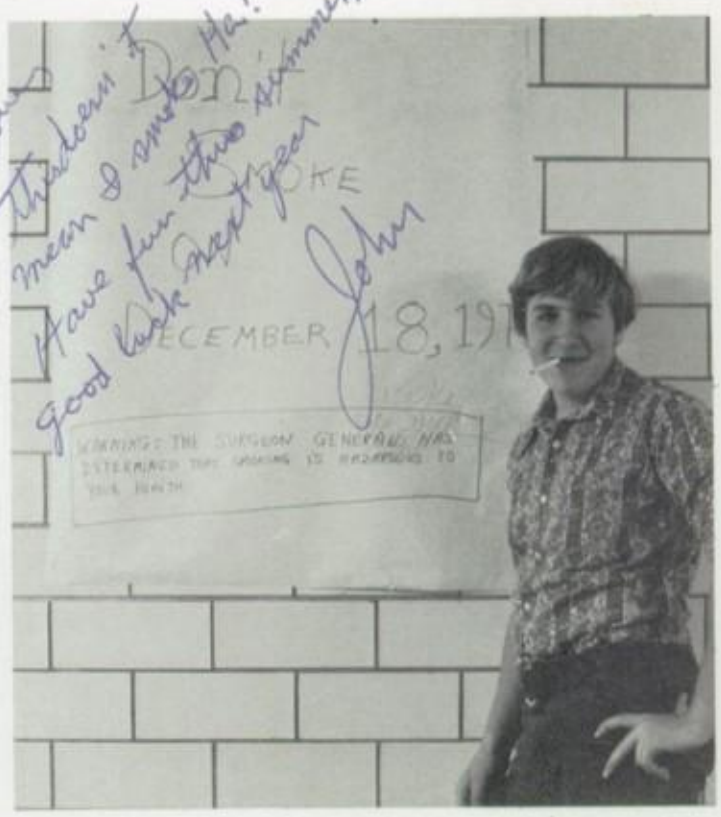
STUDENT ADVISORY

STUDENT COUNCIL



Undergoing a reconstruction this year, the student council has finally become a government rather than a "dance committee."

Representation on the council became better distributed with the ratification of a new constitution; each class having the same number of representatives.

In an attempt to move out to the community in a move towards student-citizen collaboration, the council undertook a project on smoking and the ratification of the Students Rights and Responsibilities Bill at a town meeting.

The Student Advisory Board became quite involved in student government this year as they dealt with the issue of chapter 670. They worked hand in hand with the Selectmen and School Committee up until the big night of the town meeting. Much credit is to be given these people for their hard work.

Ware High Indians
MORE APPROPRIATE HALLS

Where would a school be without a school newspaper? Unfortunately, it seems that the student body takes this informative literature for granted and therefore leaves the work up to a handful of people. Even as shorthanded as they are the Smoke Signal staff turns out an excellent paper — one that more people should take an interest in.

G.A.A. OFFICERS

The G.A.A., guided by Kris Krok and Ms. Chrabascz, held their annual candy sale again. They sponsor several other activities, which include horseback riding, ski club, and bowling.

There aren't many places or times that you can strike out and be proud of it, but if you usually do strike out, perhaps the bowling league would offer some type of outlet. The league meets once a week and many seem to enjoy it.

"Ready, Set, Go!"

BOWLING

GYM CLUB

If you would like to do a little bending or if you want to get better at it, join either of these clubs. Although neither organization performs in public any longer, you can be sure that they still work their hardest to improve themselves. It's too bad not everyone takes this attitude.

"See what we can do?"

DANCE CLUB

SKI CLUB

This seems to be quite popular with the stuents at W.H.S. . . . Lessons at Mt. Tom and a weekend trip to Ascutney are annual excursions. This year's trip was especially good!

Getting ready for Mt. Tom ski lessons.

CAMERA CLUB — CHESS CLUB

You know who they are. All those kids who walk around the school with cameras around their necks are members of Camera Club. This is one of the few clubs at Ware High that teaches its members a skill. Mr. Stubljar advises this group and they practice a "hands-on" approach. If you can't find these members, it's a possiblility that they're in the dark.

Chess Club is the only organization that meets every day of the week (with the exception of the yearbook staff a week before deadline). This is the place to go if your mind needs a little sharpening — but unfortunately there aren't enough chess boards to go around for all those who qualify in this category. Mr. Shea should get another round of applause for helping the many people that take an active interest in this club.

"Now where do I move?"

KEY CLUB

Officers: Henry Wozniak, Paul Opalinski, Mike Guimond, Tom Pryzbyla, Clayton Sydla, (President), and Mr. Clark, (advisor).

Decorating Main St. for Christmas.

The Key Club made the big move of "allowing" women to join the ranks this year. This was a big story at first, but after things cooled down, everything ran smoothly. The club must again be commended for their outstanding community service and the girls should get a vote of encouragement for their willingness to be involved in something new.

Female members doing their share.

"Hey, look! A TREE!"

"Will you help me?"

Advisor: Mrs. Copithorne
Officers: Secretary, Missy Nicholas; President, Cheryl King; Vice-Pres., Cheri Hayden; Treasurer, Paula Gaudette.

Although the student tutors organization is a bit smaller in number this year, it seems that the girls who did sign up are of the dedicated variety, thus making up for their limited membership. Mrs. Copithorne would also like to make it known that these girls make it possible to buy new equipment for the elementary school through their collection of coupons — This is a relatively unknown fact and one that the girls can be proud of.

"She's smart!"

STUDENT TUTORS

CHORUS

To Suey, nice smile. Hope a real nice person. A quiet person. Hope you remain quiet this year. Good luck to know you next year. Hope we get to be friends in the future. Have a good summer. Barbara

What goes on in the auditorium first thing every morning? No one is really positive, but judging from the harmonic noises erupting from within, everyone seems to assume that it's the chorus. All kidding aside, it seems as though this year's chorus has done a lot of work. They have been invited to perform at several functions and have again participated in the Quabbin Music Festival. Mr. Stewart has due reason to be proud of these kids, just as the rest of Ware High is.

BAND

MAJORETTES — COLOR GUARD

To Sue,
It's been a good year this year but I hope it's better next year.
Carol

Dazzling the town of Ware with their brand new uniforms, the Ware High School band offered their services for several gatherings this year. It may be hard to believe that all that noise comes out of that rather small group, but when you have the know-how and the spirit, numbers are relatively unimportant. Hopefully, the band will maintain this attitude forever — and we only hope that the rest of the school follows in line.

Although there were a few problems this year, the majorettes and color guard remained a highlight in half-time activities.

BOYS' STATE

Boys' State
David Chartier and Peter Plassmann were the 1974 representatives to Boys' State. Peter acquired an appointment to the Superior Court bench and David was elected to the State Senate. Between shaving cream fights, showing up at dinner with nothing but shorts and a tie, and streaking 500 boys at a time, the boys got some good political experience. David Robidoux was also a representative but was unable to attend.

GIRLS' STATE

Girls' State
The 1974 Girls' State representative was Jennifer Shea. Jennifer was elected to the House of Representatives where she became the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. Girls' State and Boys' State used to be held on the same campus. Nine months later the rule was changed. Girls' State is now held at Bridgewater and Boys' State is held at Assumption.

GOOD GOV'T DAY

Good Gov't Day
The author of this article knows nothing about Good Government Day except that this year's representative is Henry Woznial and that these representatives go to the State House and take over for a day. Maybe they can straighten it out!

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Citizen-one entitled to the rights and responsibilities of a freeman. Missy Nicholas was voted best qualified for this position.

GOOD CITIZEN

FINE ARTS CLUB

"Did they really look like this back then?"

Mark Orszulak, Committee Chairman, Debbie Polhill, Secretary, Ruth Hamilton, President, Barbara Renaud, Vice-President, Julie Forte, Treasurer.

"I wonder what his name is?"

lthough the Fine Arts Club has not one museum-hopping as frequently s in the past, they have still remained n active club this year. The main bjective of this organization is to inerest students in the creative aspect f life.

Although it may seem rather impossible, some at Ware High have learned uite a bit of culture by participating the activities this club sponsors, and or this they should be commended.

Trip to Boston

Dear Julie,
I know we're not the best of friends but I thank heavens! I hope you have a great summer & lots of fun at the fair. Good luck in future years.
P.S. See ya at the pool

FRENCH CLUB

Les Membres de la cercle Francais sont tres actifs dans cette annee. Ils sont alles patiner et ils ont chante les cantiques de Noel aussi. Although there are few French experts at W.H.S., (excluding French teachers, of course!) the French Club seems to be an extremely active group. They even managed to get enough people to go caroling after trying to get rid of them on a skating trip! This group should be applauded for their interest, and it's sure that if the students involved in the club would show as much interest in their studies, there would be a few better grades. But then who'd have time for the club? You never win.

SPANISH CLUB — LIBRARIANS

Although it is new this year, the Spanish Club is working to get started. Their cooking may leave something to be desired, but at least they try!

Not until you have a research paper due do you truly realize the value of a librarian who can find just what you need. Although these people are taken for granted, they do in fact serve almost all persons at Ware High at one time or another. They are given an appreciative thank-you and hope that they realize that everyone feels the same way.

Interested Underclassmen

With the cry of discrimination at the door, the yearbook staff made a firm declaration to involve underclassmen in its formation. However — with the exception of a few very interested people,the yearbook was again done by the seniors. All that can be said is — Congratulations to the seniors, and good luck to whoever comes next. A personal thank-you goes out to Ms. Kristina for all her time, effort, and patience that she had during this year to make this yearbook possible; and also to Kris Krok, our talented and dedicated art editor.

The first annual Honorary Yearbook Editor Award goes to Roger Beauregard.

Returning once again to the traditions of yester year, the Class of 1978 was welcomed into Ware High on Oct. 18th. For some strange reason, the Freshmen Class chose to dress in a rather different fashion and they seemed to find it easy to "amuse" themselves during the first part of the night. No major catastrophe occurred, probably due to the prayers of the administration, and it turned out to be a fun night for all.

Christmas Assembly

Deck the halls with boughs of holly, fa la la la la la la la la. This year's Christmas Assembly, the first of its kind, brought the spirit to many. The tree decorating contest, which included the decorating of a few human tree holders, was won by the seniors with only a third of the class present. Competition has even worked its way into Christmas!

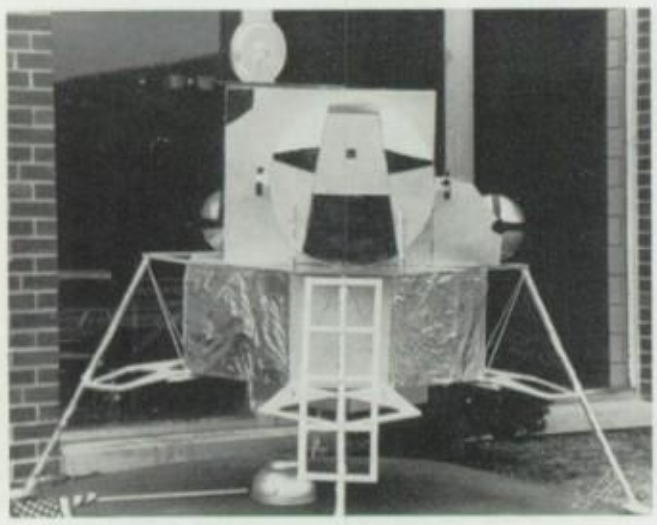
Winter Carnival March 7-8, 1975

I knew we shouldn't have bought that glue at Mals.

No! I'm sorry, this isn't the moon.



Symbolic.

What strange creatures.

Look! It's the Jupiter 2. No! It's a Klingon warship.

Play it again, Koonsie.

Are we next?

Pull . . . pull . . . never mind.

Look, Ma! No shoes.

Wake me when it's over.

Get the tough skin and tape . . . quick.

Hurry up, it's cold.

Another team bites the mud.

I didn't say "go!" yet.

I daresay, we're in the mud.

What do you do when you've scheduled a Winter Carnival and the snow just doesn't show up? Well, at least the Ware High students adjusted readily and made do with what they had — a lot of mud. The float parade and the rope pull were the only outdoor events, and though the mud caused a few problems, the afternoon ran rather smoothly.

Don't move or I'll shoot.

Hey there, big boy.

Sometimes you feel like a nut.

Isn't he the cutest thing.

I'm right, it's the world that's wrong.

Lost or Spaced?

Oh, I've got it on.

Psst, the banana's been graped.

The #1 star.

Mmmmm! Shaving cream.

No wonder we're lost, woman driver.

Trajectory: 36 degrees curve.

Back off, it's mine.

Ha Ha, I can jump higher than you can.

I can fly, I can fly.

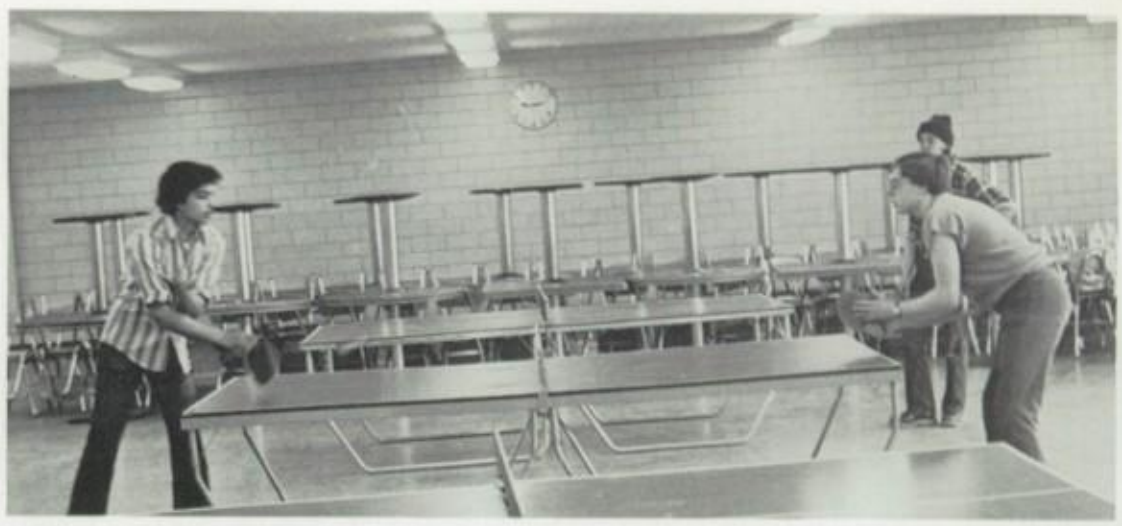
Outta the way, you're on my team.

Bubble-brained.

Hold that pose.

Although the participants in both the class skits and the numerous basketball games were indeed important, the spectators are what made the difference in these events. All classes showed a great deal of consideration and for a while, there was even a little cooperation!

Don't blame me, it wasn't my fault.



Where'd the ball go?

It's your move . . . I think . . .

That's no fair, you returned it.

Hey, did we win?

We've got to stop meeting like this.

Gulp . . . oops . . . I swallowed it.

Meanwhile, five hours later . . .

Look out for the net!

Now I've got you . . . king me.

The Rest?

Because the carnival has caused so much controversy in the past few years, the Student Council decided to divide everything among the organization within the school. This proved to be a wise move, and one that was fun for once, instead of a competing massacre. A lot of credit is given to all who helped make the carnival a success, and it is hoped that this year is an indication of future interclass cooperation.

Over the net, I said over.

Love is . . . holding hands.

Our honorable judge and referee.

The proud presidents display their award for the tenth annual WHS Winter Carnival.

The Sophomore Class won first place for their decorations of the Flintstones and the Great Gazoo.

And for the more esthetically inclined, there are the Frolics.

It was curtains for the Senior Play.

Senior Skip Day has been skipped this year.

The baseball season, "Was base-ically successful with not one single loss," they ad-mitt-ed.

The golf team had a swinging time this year.

The seniors hopefully graduated on June 12, 1975.

Clayton Sydla wants to be Chief of Police again on Town Government Day.

The Senior Banquet Mmm! It was good!

On Class Day, Henry Wozniak dropped the baton and all the seniors hit the deck.

The Junior Prom does look promising!

Maybe this year there will be a Girl's Softball team.

The annual Spring concert will be held again this year.

This past season, the Ware High Indians made one of the greatest comebacks ever. Last year they had a record of 0-9 and they rebounded this year with a record of 7-2 during the regular season, but suffered a heartbreaking 21-20 defeat in the final quarter of the Western Mass. finals against Northbridge. This season's success is due to many factors including rookie coach Mike Stubljar and all-Western Mass. players Mike Barbiasz and Gene Birk.

The J.V. team, led by Captain Marialyce Worden, finished 6-8.

The entire Varsity team will return next year, and another fine season is anticipated.

Junior Henry Wozniak was undefeated in 16 meets, and finished 66th in Western Mass. competition.

Junior Scott Donaldson came in 36th in Western Mass. competition.

The Boys' J.V. Basketball team had a great season this year winning 90% of their games and winning the Quaboag League title with a 12-0 league record. Coach Wayne Higney came through his Freshmen year with flying colors and an 18-2 overall record, defeating every team they played at least once. The two J.V. losses were by just 8 points combined.

Ware has come a long way this season. For the first time in nine years the Indians found themselves eyeing the Quaboag League Title. They have developed a strong and aggressive game determined on defense to force the low percentage shot-backed by an offense that can hit from outside and penetrate into the key for the easy lay-up.

Doreen Boucher has reached her peak of ability this season, leading Ware in scoring and rebounding. Liz Sherman and Jean Anderson as the team Quarterbacks, at guard, have risen to the job of controlling their teammates and are recognized for their well-placed passes and fast breaks. Kim Desforges, starting center, has been most impressive this season with her containment of the opponents under the basket, offensively and defensively. Her basketball "sense" and desire to win would have to be a foreshadowing for her senior year. Meave Rohan's hustling and fine defensive work have also contributed to the success of this year's team.

The 1974-75 Ware High Wrestling team has been a surprising success, and its popularity has increased throughout the school. Co-captains Nelson and Normand Labbe led their team to a good start by winning the Frontier Invitational Wrestling Tournament, defeating Hopkins Academy, Northampton, and Frontier. After some matches against some tough city schools, the team ended the season with a comparatively good 6-8-1 record, but more importantly, the team scored a 89-72-3 record as individuals. Ten individuals went to the Western Mass. Divisional Championships and five wrestlers placed: Gene Birk, first; David Chartier and Henry Wozniak, second; Normand Labbe, fourth; Greg Southworth, fifth. The team placed fourth out of eleven teams in the tournament. Chartier was the only one to score any points for the team in the State Tournament by coming in 8th. The team beat twenty four other teams in the Tourney.

Last year the Ware Varsity Baseball Indians again won the Quaboag League Championship with a 14-1 League record. Their overall record was 19-3. Besides the one league loss, the other two losses were against the Western Mass. Champions and the State Title holders, St. Joe's and Quabbin. The Indians were seeded #1 in the Western Mass. Tournament last year, and responded with a 21-hit barrage, and an 8-3 victory over Mahar in the first round. In the second round, however, the Indians, playing under lights for the first time, suffered a heartbreaking 8-7 loss to St. Joe's in 10 innings. Coach George Robidoux is looking for another very successful season in 1975.

Although having only a 7-11 record, the 1974 J.V. baseball team showed much promise. This year's Varsity hopefuls coming from Coach Ron Buelow's fighting nine include Joe Szlosek, Marc Morrissette, and Paul Harper. The spirit of the team was expressed no better than, when playing against Commerce, in Springfield. They came back from a large deficit to tie Commerce at 6 runs, only to have the opposing squad leave the field in poor conduct. The 1975 season brings hope of a comeback year with many returning veterans, promising newcomers and an experienced coach.

What do you mean, out?

Ouch, those bases are hard

Alright, who moved the golf course?

The Ware High 1974 Varsity Golf Team enjoyed another successful season, though they lost two valuable men and had nowhere near as great a season as in 1973, when they were Quaboag League winners and Western Mass. Champions. They did, however, sport a 10-5-1 record to finish well up in the League standings, taking a third place spot in overall standings. Many individuals stand out for their efforts. One is Bill Korzec, who was a Senior and first man on the team. Bill's consistently long tee shots and pressure putting put the Indians on top many times. His fine low average earned him a shot at Western Mass. individual scoring tournaments and a good personal won- lost record. Another important member of the team was second man and sophomore Gill Higney whose average was second lowest on the team and who went along with Bill Korzec to the State Tournament. Gill's overall good play, punctuated frequently with marvelous shots, won many matches. The team's fifth man, Neil Gage, was frequently the match winner for the team. Neil's surprisingly low scores enabled him to pick up many unexpected points and give Ware High the victory. The other team members, however, all at one time or another contributed to the team good. Third man Fran Charron, fourth man Chris Pajak, sixth man Denis Beaudin and sub Rory Geslock along with rookie senior Tom Coulombe kept the Indians a good team.

Take that

Ware High without intramural sports is like a day without sunshine. Everyone, whether participant or spectator, enjoys nothing more than activity period at Ware High School. From softball to volleyball to basketball and then back to softball again. In fall softball, the Seniors elongated their undefeated streak to 21 games while accumulating a perfect 8-0 record. As of press time, volleyball was undecided and basketball had not begun yet. A special thanks to "Coach" Bob Becker for keeping us kids off the streets and interested in sports.
